PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1 Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Danielle Crawford is considered in violation of her period of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington by committing the offense of forgery on or prior to November 17, 2011.

The defendant was charged in Benton County Superior Court under case number 11-1-01322-1, with four counts of forgery. The investigation began in August of 2011, and culminated in November of 2011. Reports indicated the defendant worked with several other individuals to manufacture fake currency. The defendant also personally passed multiple bills. She is currently incarcerated at the Benton County Jail.

2 Mandatory Condition # 3: The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Supporting Evidence: Danielle Crawford is considered in violation of her period of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington by possessing methamphetamine on or prior to November 17, 2011.

As noted above, the defendant was arrested on November 17, 2011, after allegedly manufacturing and passing fake monies. During the arrest, officers searched the defendant's purse and located two glass pipes with white residue. The defendant was charged with possessing methamphetamine under case number PC11Y0862, after the residue was tested and found to be methamphetamine. The defendant admitted she had smoked methamphetamine just days prior.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
